Dear Sirs:-

I have a wonderful collection of American coins comprising about four hundred pieces in first class condition which I would like to dispose of and wish you would give me some information or put me in touch with people who you think are interested.

Thanking you for your reply
which is appreciated,

very truly yours,

Ernest A. Grunsfeld

Could you advise me, where I can get a reliable coin catalogue?

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of January 16th concerning a collection of coins, I feel that if you could bring them up here and let us look them over we could advise you the best way to dispose of them. We could look at them on any week-day.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Gentlemen:-

Please accept my thanks for your letter of January 22nd. The collection I mentioned to you is in a large frame and it will be very difficult for me to visit you but would appreciate it immensely if your Mr. Wood could call on me any morning this week between ten and one o'clock to look at it which undoubtedly will prove interesting to him.

Thanking you in advance for your courtesy,

Very truly yours,
